

Texas State University-San Marcos - The Department of Criminal Justice at Texas State University-San Marcos is accepting applications for one Lecturer position, beginning in Fall, 2010.

Position No. 2010-21/Rank/Salary: A full time (9 month) teaching position at the rank of Lecturer (renewable annually contingent upon continuing departmental need) beginning in Fall 2010, to teach up to four (4) courses in each full semester and contribute departmental service as assigned by the departmental chair. Teaching will occur primarily at the undergraduate level, but some masters level teaching is also a possibility. Applicants with teaching capabilities in all areas of criminal justice will be considered, but persons demonstrating teaching capabilities in the substantive areas of statistics and research methods are particularly encouraged to apply. Salary commensurate with qualifications.

Qualifications: Required Qualifications – Either Ph.D. or A.B.D. in Criminal Justice or a related field by date of appointment. Preferred Qualifications – Higher education teaching experience in field of criminal justice. Some record of scholarship. Demonstrated ability to teach in substantive area of statistics. Demonstrated ability to teach in substantive area of research methods.

Appointment/Start Date: On or about September 1, 2010.

Application Deadline: To ensure full consideration, all materials should arrive by November 20, 2009.

Application Process: Applicants should submit the following materials: (1) Letter of application (2) Curriculum vita. (3) List of three references (complete with both e-mail and mailing addresses). (4) Texas State University Application for Faculty Employment form (see University website, Office of the Provost-Faculty Records). To: David B. Perkins, Criminal Justice Department, 601 University Drive, HAC 108, San Marcos, Texas, 78666. Texas State University-San Marcos is an equal opportunity educational institution and is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty.